

IPIC 5TH EDITION
INTERNATIONAL PRIMARY
IMMUNODEFICIENCIES
CONGRESS

APRIL 27-29, 2022
VILAMOURA - PORTUGAL

Diagnosis, management, and recent advances in the treatment of Activated phosphoinositide 3-kinase $\delta$ syndrome (APDS), a rare genetic primary immunodeficiency disorder

Vilamoura, Portugal, Wednesday 27th April
20.30 – 21.30 CET

This symposium has been funded by Pharming Group N.V. and the content and agenda for the meeting has been developed by Pharming Group N.V. in partnership with the expert faculty.

Faculty

Professor Stephan Ehl
MD

*Institute for Immunodeficiency
University Medical Center Freiburg*

Dr Anita Chandra
FRCPATH, Ph.D

*Cambridge University Hospitals/
University of Cambridge*

Professor Anna Sediva
MD, Ph.D

Charles University, Prague

Agenda

20.00	Doors will open to allow access to the buffet
20.30 – 20.35	Introduction from Chair Professor Stephan Ehl
20.35 – 20.50	Challenges with diagnosis and management of APDS Dr Anita Chandra
20.50 – 21.30	SCIENTIFIC EXCHANGE SESSION Leniolisib: safety and efficacy results from Phase 3 clinical trial Professor Anna Sediva

INTENDED FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS ONLY.

